The Daily Courant.

Saturday, Auguſt 14. 1708.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Aug. 3.

Conſtantinople, June 7.

THE Ottoman Porte keep Men continually at Work on the Fortifications of Bender ſituate at the Mouth of the Nieſter; whither two Galleys and other Veſſels have lately been ſent, laden with Proviſions and Ammunition. 3 Weeks ago the Captain Baſhaw, or Admiral, ſail'd from hence with 15 Galleys for the Archipelago; where he is to be joyn'd by 10 Men of War, on board one of which Mortars and Cannon are imbark'd. The grand Signior has been ſo ill of the ſmall Pox, that his Phyſicians deſpair'd of his Recovery, but 24 or 25 Days being paſt ſince he firſt fell ſick, he is now thought to be out of Danger, which is good News for the Chriſtian Potentates that are Neighbours to the Turkiſh Empire. The Ambaſſadour of France expects here daily a French Ship which was forc'd by 2 Zealand Privateers to put into Napoli di Romania: This Ship came from Marſeilles, and the greateſt Part of her Lading belongs to M. Gleize a Merchant of that City; and the Produce of the Effects on board her, as alſo a conſiderable Sum in Specie, for the Account of the King of France, is to be ſent to the Malecontents of Hungary, who ſollicit more earneſtly than ever Aſſiſtance from this Court. Shah-Alum, Eldeſt Son of the deceas'd Aurengzebe the great Mogul, having ſlain his Brother Azam and his two Sons, is at preſent in the quiet Enjoyment of that Soveraignty. M. Fabre, who went to Perſia, with the Caracter of Ambaſſador of France, died near Erivan; not without Suſpition of being Poiſon'd, (as the French report) by the Governour of that Province.

Vienna, Aug. 4. The Daniſh Troops which are order'd from Bavaria to ſerve in Hungary, are all to rendezvous at Lintz the 8th of this Month, viz. the Regiment of Often is to embark the 4th at Ingolſtad on the Danube, and to come that Day to Kelheim, the 5th to Statt-am-Hoff near Ratisbon, the 6th to Straubing, the 7th to Vilzhoffen, and the 8th to Lintz. The Regiment of Reis is to imbark the 6th at Straubing, to come that Day to Vilzhoffen, and the 7th to Lintz. The Regiment of Grake is to imbark the 6th at Vilzhoffen, and to came to Lintz the ſame Day. The Regiment of Vedel is to imbark the 6th at Scarding, and the ſame Day to come to Lintz. The Regiment of Gherſtorff is to be imbark'd at Straubing the 6th, to ſtop at Night at Vilzhoffen, and to be the 7th at Lintz. And the Regiment of Brem, is to imbark the 6th at Sailerwilt, and to arrive the ſame Day at Lintz. The Regiment of Dragoons of Prince Eugene came into our Neighbourhood the 1ſt Inſtant, and having paſs'd in Review before the Emperour, is ſince march'd on to Hungary. When all our Forces that are to act in that Kingdom have taken the Field, the Emperour will go in Perſon to the Diet at Presbourg; and in the mean time the Grievances of the Hungarians are under the Conſideration of the Council, in Order to his Imperial Majeſty's declaring his Reſolution concerning them. Adjutant-General Baron Hohendorff, who was ſent hither by Prince Eugene with the good News of the Victory gain'd by the Allies near Audenarde, ſet out to Day on his Return to Flanders. To return Thanks to the Almighty for that Victory, the Emperour and Empreſs came the 25th paſt from the Palace of Favorita to the Cathedral Church of St. Stephen in this City, where after a Sermon Te Deum was begun by the Prince our Biſhop, and perform'd to Muſick; a tripple Salvo being given by the Imperial Foot-Guards which ſtood drawn up before the Church, and by the Artillery on the Bulworks round the City: That Day being the Feſtival of St. James the Apoſtle, their Imperial Majeſty's went from the Cathedral to the Monaſtery of the Canonneſſes of St. Auguſtine, the Church of which is dedicated to St. James, where they Din'd with the Empreſs Dowager and the Archdutcheſſes. The 26th paſt being the Emperour's Birth-Day, on which he enter'd into the 31ſt Year of his Age, was celebrated at Court with great Rejoycing and Magnificence. And the ſame Day being the Feſtival of St. Anne, their Imperial Majeſty's, attended by a great Number of the Nobility in moſt ſplendid Habits, came from the Palace of Favorita to the Church of the Noviciates of the Society of Jeſus in this City, dedicated to that Saint; where they held a publick Chappel; and afterwards din'd in that College: In the Evening their Majeſties went to the great Imperial Garden in the Suburbs of St. Leopold, where they were diverted with an Entry of triumphal Chariots and Horſemen, and other Repreſentations of the Grandeur of the antient Romans, with a Conſort of Vocal and Inſtrumental Muſick, &c. Theſe Entertainments drew thither a great Concourſe of Perſons of Quality of both Sexes and a Crowd of other Spectators. The Marquis de Langalerie is gone from hence for Poland, and 'tis ſaid the Czar will give him the Command of his Cavalry. The laſt Letters that are yet come hither from the Queen of Portugal, adviſe, that the 21ſt paſt her Majeſty arriv'd at Marienberg in Saxony, where ſhe was complimented on the Part of King Auguſtus; and that ſhe enter'd Leipſick the 24th, where ſhe was receiv'd with great Honours, and entertain'd in the Evening at the Charge of the Univerſity with a Conſort of Muſick intermix'd with Drums and Trumpets, and with an Illumination of 100 Torches: The 25th Her Majeſty proceeded on her Journey from thence for Holland.

Falmouth, Aug. 9. The 7th Inſtant arriv'd the Expedition in 21 Days from Lisbon, bringing Paſſenger Brigadier Collier.

Plymouth, Aug. 10. Yeſterday came in a Ship of and for Amſterdam from Genoa, the Anne of Briſtol from Jamaica bound for London, and the Rotterdam for Rotterdam from Rochel. This Day came in from cruiſing the Concordia Privateer of Middlebourg Captain Peter Hamers, of 28 Guns; Yeſterday he took a French Man of War of 26 Guns, Guns, 6 Leagues off this Port, and has brought her in with him. Captain Hamers has 5 Men kill'd and 7 wounded; and the other about 50 kill'd or wounded.

Shields, Aug. 10. Yesterday sail'd from this Port, above 200 Sail of laden Colliers, under Convoy of the Norwich and Solebay; Part for the Coast, the rest for London; among this Fleet is the Joseph from Jamaica.

Yarmouth, Aug. 11. Yesterday sail'd to the Southward her Majesty's Ship the Swift. Here Remain her Majesty's Ship the Anglesea, and 5 or 6 Sail bound for Gottenburg.

Harwich, Aug. 12. The Pacquetboats are not sail'd, so that here are two Mails for Holland.

Deale, Aug. 12. Her Majesty's Ship the Dragon sail'd Yesterday in the Afternoon towards Dunkirk, as did the Dover this Morning to re-joyn Sir George Byng's Squadron, and the Tyger for Dungeness. This Morning her Majesty's Ship the Kinsale came into the Downes, where are likewise the Nottingham, on board which is the Rear-Admiral of the White, Revenge, Montague, Darmouth, Crown, Tyger, Canterbury, Woolwich, St. Albans, Edinburgh, and Vulture Fire-ship: With the Peregrine, William and Mary, and Catherine Yachts.

A Rhinoceros about 20 Years since was brought from Siam in India, which in Strength and Colour is like the Elephant, upon his Nose growth a large and sharp Horn, on its back are many Divisions like the Shells of a Tortoise, its Skin is so extreme hard no Dart can pierce it, each Foot hath 3 Hoofs. In a word, this admirable Creature, from the Tip or its Nose to the End of his Tail, differs from all other Beasts, except only in Eyes and Ears. To be seen with its Skelleton, near the Faulcon on the Road to Hide-Park, turning down to May-Fair.
